"WHAT HAPPENED TO THE LITTLE GROM from back in the two-line days? Here he is, almost 10 years later, still throwing down at Kite Beach. A few years back, Niccolo Porcella disappeared from the media for a short while, prone to a back injury and lacking sponsors. With the support of Wainman Hawaii and a local Maui trainer at Upcountry Fitness, he's back on track. Stalefish Tantrum to Blind, with boots and style." —Tracy Kraft
